

The Mysterious Candy Caper

By: _____

On a cold dark night a mysterious creature silently crept onto the thick forest floor with a brown satchel of colored candies in his grasp. Although he was not seen by anyone other than the night forest animals he danced silently through the forest leaving little bits of color everywhere.

What did this creature look like? What was he doing in the forest that night? Why was he spreading candy all over the forest floor? Dig deep into your imagination and spin a tale about this mysterious creature and his journey.

Write in complete sentences below your tale of mystery and fill in the details of this candy caper. If you need more room to write use an extra sheet of paper to continue your journey.
